

LONG RANGE BUFFALO SINGLE SHOT RIFLE

Course of Fire

This event is for BLACK POWDER or BLACK POWDER SUSTITUTES only!

Shooter starts with action open and an empty chamber. Rifle may be shouldered at the ready position. Shooter will notify the timer operator when ready.

On signal shooter will fire continuously, alternating between the two (2) targets for ten (10) rounds.

Artificial rests (sticks) are allowed.

Shooter may fire course from any safe position, i.e. standing, sitting or prone.

Additional rounds to be loaded on the clock: may come from the body, pockets, loading blocks, belts, boxes and blankets etc.

Additional rounds cannot come from another individual or ANY bodily orifice!

Rifle Requirements

Any SASS approved long range single shot rifle or carbine.

Spring loaded ejectors prohibited, EXCEPT for Springfield trapdoors. Calibers are to be .375 or larger!

Long range buffalo single shot requires all ammunition to be lead bullets loaded with black powder or black powder substitutes only!

All ammunition to be lead bullets, No jacketed rounds!